BILL FOLEY
CHAIRMAN, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND GOVERNOR

Bill Foley knew that bringing an NHL franchise to Las Vegas was not going to be an easy task, but his persistence paid off on June 22, 2016. While that day will go down in history as the first day a major professional team entered the market, it would not have happened without the hard work from Foley and the people he surrounded himself with.

In the years leading up to the Board of Governor's announcement of the NHL's 31st franchise, Foley, the Vegas Golden Knights Chairman and CEO, was busy engaging the fan base and aligning himself with prominent people in the community. In early 2014, he entered an agreement with the Maloof family to pursue an NHL franchise in Las Vegas. At the end of 2014, the NHL granted Foley permission to gauge fan interest in Las Vegas.

On February 15, 2015, Foley and the Maloofs launched the "Vegas Wants Hockey" season ticket drive with the goal of 10,000 season tickets sold. They received more than 5,000 ticket deposits on the first day and about a month later, they reached their goal. In June, the NHL officially announced they would accept applications for expansion. Less than a month later Foley had submitted his application. He would spend the next 11 months meeting with NHL officials and governors on why Las Vegas was a good fit.

After expansion was announced, Foley went to work putting together his team. He named George McPhee the team's first General Manager on July 13, 2016 and the hockey operations staff started to take form. On October 3, 2016, Kerry Bubolz was named the team's first President and the business side of the team started to develop. The official team name, the Vegas Golden Knights, was announced on November 22, 2016, in front of thousands of fans in Toshiba Plaza in front of T-Mobile Arena.

Foley sat in on many meetings leading up to the Expansion Draft and on June 21, alongside McPhee, Foley announced picks at the NHL Awards Show in front of more than 10,000 fans at T-Mobile Arena.

In their inaugural season, the Golden Knights finished with a 51-24-7 overall record, won the Pacific Division and advanced to the Stanley Cup Final. Vegas became the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division.

Foley is the founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Fidelity National Financial Corporation (NYSE: FNF), a publicly traded Fortune 500 Company. A provider of title insurance, specialty insurance and claims management services, FNF was selected in 2004 by Forbes as one of the "26 Best Managed Companies in the U.S." and has repeatedly been named to Fortune's list of America's Most Admired Companies, Forbes' list of America's Best Big Companies and selected for Barron's list of Best Companies for Investors.

After receiving his B.S. degree in engineering from the United States Military Academy at West Point, Foley served in the U.S. Air Force, where he attained the rank of captain. He received an M.B.A. degree from Seattle University and earned his J.D. degree in 1974 from the University of Washington School of Law. From 1974 to 1984, Foley practiced law in Phoenix and focused primarily on corporate and real estate law. Following his legal tenure, Foley became affiliated with FNF. Through strategic acquisitions, Foley led FNF to become one of the largest title insurance companies in the nation, as well as to diversify into information services through the 2003 acquisition of ALLTEL Information Services, now Lender Processing Services (NYSE: LPS).

Foley devotes time to many educational and community organizations. In 1997, he was chosen as Orange County, California's Business Person of the Year, honored with the Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation's Semper Fidelis award and inducted into the Florida Council of Economic Education's First Coast Business Hall of Fame in 2006.

Foley and his wife, Carol, are active philanthropists for many causes, especially those in support of children's education. Foley has served as a trustee on the boards of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and the Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens. He also serves on the board of the Folded Flag Foundation, and their mission is to provide educational scholarships and support grants to the spouses and children of the United States military and government personnel who died as a result of hostile action or in an accident related to U.S. combat operations. Foley's additional professional directorships include Winter Sports, Inc.; Ceridian Corporation; and Fidelity Newport Holdings, LLC.

In addition to his numerous professional and philanthropic commitments, Foley is an accomplished golfer, ranked in 2004 by Golf Digest as one of the top five executive golfers in the world. Foley enjoys his time as a vintner and is the founder and managing partner of Foley Family Wines, headquartered in Sonoma, Calif. Foley also formed and serves as Chairman of Glacier Restaurant Group, LLC, the largest restaurant business headquartered in Montana. He is the developer of Rock Creek Cattle Company, a 40,000-acre working Montana ranch, featuring a high-end golf community with diverse homesteads, a well-appointed lodge for recreation and dining and an exceptional golf course designed by Tom Doak.

GEORGE McPHEE
PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS, ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

On July 13, 2016, George McPhee became the first-ever President of Hockey Operations and General Manager of the Vegas Golden Knights. On September 1, 2019, McPhee retained the President of Hockey Operations when he promoted Kelly McCrimmon to the team's General Manager.

In his current role, McPhee oversees the team's day-to-day hockey operations including development, with an emphasis on scouting, drafting and overseeing the coaching staff. He has created a team-first culture in his short time with the franchise and has hired staff around him who share that philosophy.

In the team's fourth season, the Vegas Golden Knights were the only team to record 40 wins during the 2020-2021 campaign, finishing with a 40-14-2 record (82 points) and finishing second, behind Colorado, in the race for the President's Trophy. The team, again advanced to the final four, where the Golden Knights fell to the Montreal Canadiens in six games. It's the third time in Vegas' short history that the team has advanced to the semi-finals of the NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs.

The team's third season saw the Golden Knights post a 39-24-8 record (86points) and capture its second Pacific Division title in three years following a shortened regular season. The team advanced to the Western Conference Final, where Vegas fell to the Dallas Stars in five games.

During the team's second season, the Golden Knights posted a 43-32-7 record (93 points) and finished third in the Pacific Division. In the opening round of the 2019 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Vegas fell to the San Jose Sharks in seven games.

Under McPhee's guidance, the Golden Knights became the first expansion team to start their inaugural season 3-0. The Golden Knights continued their strong play in October, starting with an 8-1 record, despite losing multiple goaltenders to injury.

The Vegas Golden Knights finished their unprecedented inaugural season with a 51-24-7 record (109 points) and the Pacific Division title, becoming the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division.

For his efforts, McPhee was named the General Manager of the Year during the NHL Awards show on June 20, 2018. It was his first GM Award in his second appearance as a finalist, having finished as a runner-up in 2009-10 with the Washington Capitals.

Prior to the season, McPhee was tasked with putting together a competitive team in the short-term but also building for long-term success. Contributing to both of those goals was a successful Expansion Draft. The Expansion Draft was not the only place where McPhee and his staff were successful. Through the expansion process, the Golden Knights made agreements with other teams and benefited by having three first-round draft picks in the 2017 NHL Entry Draft and 13 overall picks in the draft. The team ended up making 12 selections, the most of any team in the 2017 draft.

McPhee joined the Golden Knights after most serving as a Special Advisor to New York Islanders General Manager Garth Snow in 2015.

Prior to his time with the Islanders, McPhee served as Vice President and General Manager of the Washington Capitals for 17 seasons. Under his guidance, the Capitals grew from a lottery team to a perennial contender with multiple Southeast Division championships and the team captured the Presidents' Trophy in 2009-10.

The Capitals reached the playoffs 10 times during McPhee's tenure in Washington, including six straight seasons from 2007-08 to 2012-13. Under his leadership, the team claimed seven Southeast Division titles and he oversaw the Capitals first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1997-98, McPhee's first season with the franchise.

McPhee also saw success through the draft while with Washington as the team held 15 first-round draft picks from 2004-13, the most of any NHL team. His most notable selection was the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the league's only active three-time MVP. Prospects flourished under McPhee's direction as the Capitals affiliate of the American Hockey League, the Hershey Bears, were Calder Cup champions in 2006, 2009 and 2010.

Prior to his time in Washington, McPhee spent five seasons as the Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then General Manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. In his time with the Canucks, the team enjoyed four trips to the playoffs, a division championship and a trip to the 1994 Stanley Cup Final.

McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. A four-year letterwinner from 1978-82, he was the recipient of the 1982 Hobey Baker Memorial Award, given to the top player in college hockey. His other accolades included a first-team All-CCHA selection in 1982, second-team All-CCHA honors in 1979 and 1981 and his selection as the CCHA's Rookie of the Year in 1979. Earning a degree in business, he became the first player to be named to the CCHA All-Academic Team in three consecutive seasons.

Upon the completion of his college career, McPhee signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers and started his NHL career during the 1982 Stanley Cup playoffs. Following his seven seasons with the Rangers and New Jersey Devils, McPhee earned his law degree from Rutgers University in 1992.

McPhee and his wife, Leah, have two daughters, Grayson and Adelaide, and one son, Graham, who was drafted by the Edmonton Oilers in the fifth round of the 2016 NHL Entry Draft.

KELLY McCRIMMON
GENERAL MANAGER

Kelly McCrimmon was hired as Executive Vice President of Hockey Operations and Assistant General Manager on August 2, 2016, as one of General Manager George McPhee's first appointments.

On September 1, 2019, McCrimmon took over the General Manager duties, will represent the Golden Knights at the league's General Managers Meetings and be the point of contact for other NHL general managers. He continues to assist McPhee with the development of the team's scouting, drafting and coaching staffs and with the day-to-day operations of the Golden Knights.

McCrimmon comes to Las Vegas after serving as Owner, Governor, General Manager and Head Coach of the Western Hockey League's Brandon Wheat Kings and has been with the organization since 1988-89. McCrimmon served as Head Coach from 2004-11, and 2013-16. He has helped the Wheat Kings to five Memorial Cup appearances, once as a player (1979), three times as General Manager (1995, 1996, 2016) and twice as Head Coach and General Manager (2010, 2016).

Under McCrimmon's guidance, the Wheat Kings have captured 10 Eastern Division pennants and six Eastern Conference Championships. He was named WHL Executive of the Year in 1994-95, 2009-10, 2014-15, and received the Canadian Hockey League Executive of the Year award in 2009-10.

Since the 1992-93 campaign, when the Wheat Kings established a CHL record that still stands for the biggest single-season improvement of 62 points, the club has won more games than any other team in the CHL and has made the playoffs 22 of the last 24 seasons.

McCrimmon is the Wheat Kings All-Time winningest coach, having won over 400 games behind Brandon's bench. He purchased one-third ownership of the Wheat Kings from partner Bob Cornell in 1992, and assumed sole ownership in 2000. A member of the WHL's Board of Governors, McCrimmon also served as Chairman of the league's Competition Committee.

The Plenty, Saskatchewan, native played two seasons in Brandon in the late seventies and was a member of the 1979 WHL Championship club before moving on to the University of Michigan from 1980-84, serving as team captain his senior year. He will continue to serve as Owner and Governor of the Wheat Kings.

PETE DeBOER
HEAD COACH

Pete DeBoer was named the second head coach of the Vegas Golden Knights on January 15, 2020 and led the Golden Knights to a Pacific Division championship once the season ended on March 12 due to COVID-19. In 78 regular-season games as the bench boss for the Golden Knights, he has compiled a 55-19-4 record. During his first postseason run with Vegas, DeBoer helped lead the team to a Western Conference Final appearance, where the team faced the Dallas Stars, and he led the team to another semi-final appearance during the 2021 Stanley Cup Playoffs, where Vegas faced the Montreal Canadiens. On August 9, 2021, it was announced that DeBoer would serve as an assistant coach to Hockey Canada in the upcoming Winter Olympics.

During his first season with the Golden Knights, DeBoer led the team to a 4-2 victory at the Ottawa Senators in his first game behind the Vegas bench on January 16. He helped lead the team to a 15-5-2 record and 32 points, which ranked tied for fourth in the NHL after joining the team.

During the 2020-21 shortened season, DeBoer led the team to a 40-14-2 record and a second-place finish in the NHL. Vegas was the only team in the league to collect 40 wins in the shortened season and finished with the highest points percentage (.732). In addition to leading the league in those categories, under DeBoer, the Golden Knights also led the league in goal differential (+67) penalty kill percentage (86.8), goals-against per game (2.18), blocked shots per game (14.89) and ranked third in goals for per game (3.39).

DeBoer owns a career NHL coaching record of 470-348-115 as well as 58 playoff victories following stints with Vegas, San Jose, New Jersey and Florida. He was named the eighth coach in San Jose Sharks franchise history on May 28, 2015. With San Jose, DeBoer guided the Sharks to a 198-129-34 record over five seasons, including a trip to the first Stanley Cup appearance in team history in 2016.

Prior to joining San Jose, DeBoer coached the New Jersey Devils for three and a half seasons, posting a 114-93-41 record and leading the Devils to the 2012 Stanley Cup Final. DeBoer finished his coaching tenure with the Devils as the second-winningest coach in New Jersey franchise history behind Jacques Lemaire (276).

DeBoer spent three seasons prior to his stint with the Devils as head coach of the Florida Panthers, compiling a 103-107-36 mark behind the Panthers' bench.

Before coaching in the NHL, DeBoer was one of the most distinguished coaches in the Ontario Hockey League's history. He spent 13 seasons coaching with Detroit, Plymouth and Kitchener in the OHL, including winning a Memorial Cup Championship in 2003 and the OHL Championship in 2003 and 2008 with Kitchener.

A two-time winner of the OHL Coach of the Year Award in 1999 and 2000 with Plymouth, he was also named the Canadian Hockey League's Coach of the Year in 2000. During his time in the OHL, he led his team to the league's best overall record four times (1998-99, 1999-2000, 2002-03, 2007- 08) and is one of only eight coaches in OHL history to reach the 500+ win mark. He ranks eighth on the OHL all-time coaches win list (539) and 12th in games coached (878).

Internationally, DeBoer has frequently been selected to represent his native Canada, including serving as an assistant coach for the Canadian World Championship squad in 2015 (gold medal), 2014 and 2010. Additionally, he was a member of the coaching staff for Canada's World Junior Championship team in 2005 (gold medal) and 1998. He also served on the Team Canada coaching staff for the 2007 Canada-Russia Super Series.

A center in his playing career, DeBoer was selected by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 12th round (237th overall) of the 1988 NHL Entry Draft and played professionally for two seasons with the International Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals.

Born June 13, 1968 in Dunnville, Ontario, he holds a law degree from the University of Windsor and University of Detroit. He and his wife, Susan, have one daughter, Abigail, and two sons, Jack and Matthew.

STEVE SPOTT
ASSISTANT COACH

Steve Spott joined the Golden Knights on January 28, 2020 after most recently serving under Peter DeBoer with the San Jose Sharks organization from 2015-19. In that time, Spott helped guide the Sharks to a record of 198-129-34 and an appearance in the 2016 Stanley Cup Final.

Prior to working with the Sharks, Spott spent the 2014-15 season as an assistant coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs. As a native of Toronto, he spent the previous two seasons with the Maple Leafs' American Hockey League (AHL) team, the Toronto Marlies. As head coach of the Marlies during the 2013-14 season, Spott led the team to a record of 45-25-2-4 and a Northern Division title.

Before his time in Toronto, Spott coached in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) with both the Kitchener Rangers and the Plymouth Whalers. He spent four total seasons under DeBoer with the Whalers before they joined Kitchener in 2001. Spott spent his first seven seasons in Kitchener as an assistant under DeBoer.

Following DeBoer's departure to the NHL in 2008, Spott was hired as both Kitchener's head coach and general manager. In five seasons as head coach, Spott helped the Rangers to a record of 187-121-32, including two appearances in the Western Conference Final.

Internationally, Spott helped Team Canada win the gold medal as an assistant coach at the under-18 Ivan Hlinka Memorial tournament in the summer of 2008. He also won a silver medal as an assistant with Team Canada at the World Junior Hockey Championships in 2010. In 2011, he led Canada to a gold medal as head coach of the under-18 team at the Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament in the Czech Republic. Spott was also head coach of Team Canada during the 2013 World Junior Hockey Championships in Russia.

Spott played hockey at Colgate University in New York from 1986-90. During his time at Colgate, he recorded 75 goals and 73 assists, for 148 points total.

He and his wife, Lisa, have two children; Tyler and Emma.

RYAN McGILL
ASSISTANT COACH

Ryan McGill is in his fifth season with the Golden Knights and joined the team after most recently serving as the head coach of the Ontario Hockey League's Owen Sound Attack. He led the Attack to an overall record of 49-15-4 for a franchise-best 102 points during the 2016-17 season, which was good for the second-most points in the league. Over his two years with the club, McGill compiled a record of 81-42-10-5 and helped guide the team to its first conference final berth since the Attack won the J. Ross Robertson Cup in 2010-11 and was named both the OHL and Canadian Hockey League's Coach of the Year in 2016-17.

Prior to coaching the Attack, McGill spent time as the head coach of the Western Hockey League's Kootenay Ice. It was his second stint with the Ice, as he was team's head coach from 1998-2002 and led them to a Memorial Cup title in 2002. In 2009, McGill was named an assistant coach for the Calgary Flames after four years as the head coach of the Flames' American Hockey League primary affiliate team in Quad City and Omaha. He was also the head coach of the AHL's Hartford Wolf Pack from 2003-05.

The Sherwood Park, Alberta native played in 151 NHL games between 1991-95 before his career was cut short by injury. McGill scored four goals and recorded 15 assists for 19 points and 391 penalty minutes in those 151 games. He suited up for the Chicago Blackhawks (1991-92), Philadelphia Flyers (1992-95) and the Edmonton Oilers (1994-95).

He was selected by Chicago in the second round (29th overall) of the 1987 NHL Draft. McGill made his NHL debut for the Blackhawks during the 1991-92 season.

RYAN CRAIG
ASSISTANT COACH

Ryan Craig is in his fifth year as an assistant coach for the Vegas Golden Knights. The Abbotsford, BC native joined the Golden Knights after most recently playing for the Cleveland Monsters of the American Hockey League, an affiliate of the NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets. In the 2016-17 season Craig served as captain of the team and skated in 71 games, combining goals (11) and assists (11) for a total of 22 points. He also had a total of 25 penalty minutes this during the 2016-17 season. In the 2015-16 season Craig played for the Lake Erie Monsters, where he skated in 60 games, registering 20 points with 9 goals and 11 assists and totaling 38 penalty minutes. In addition, in the 2015-16 season the Monsters were the AHL Calder Cup champions.

Craig spent a total of 11 seasons in the AHL and was the captain of his team for nine of those years. He skated in 711 AHL games and tallied a total of 360 points on 172 goals and 188 assists and recorded 554 penalty minutes. From 2010-2012 Craig captained the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins until signing a one-year AHL contract with the Springfield Falcons, where he was also named captain in his first season with the club.

The British Columbia native also spent time playing with various teams in the NHL. Craig was selected by the Tampa Bay Lightning in the 8th round (255th overall) in the 2002 NHL Entry Draft. Craig debuted in his first NHL game with Tampa Bay in the 2005-06 season. Craig played with Tampa Bay four more seasons, from 2006-2010, before signing with the Pittsburgh Penguins for the 2010-2011 season. In 2013-14 Craig signed with Columbus where he played in 2 regular season games. Over Craig's entire NHL career he registered 63 total points, combining 32 goals with 31 assists as well as 148 penalty minutes in 198 games.

Craig has earned several awards throughout his years in professional hockey including: the CHL and WHL Humanitarian of the Year in 2002-03, the ECHL Player of the Week in 2003-04 and AHL Calder Cup champion in 2015-16.

He and his wife, Jaydee, have a son, Carson, and two daughters, Kylie and Camryn.

MISHA DONSKOV
ASSISTANT COACH

Misha Donskov joined the Vegas Golden Knights coaching staff as an assistant coach ahead of the 2020-21 season after previously serving as the Director of Hockey Operations for the teams since August 8, 2016. He was also named Team Canada's special assistant of coaching operations for the 2022 Winter Olympics.

Donskov joined the Golden Knights after serving as Manager of Hockey Operations/Analytics & Video for Hockey Canada's Men's National Teams. On July 1, 2016, he was appointed Assistant Coach/Hockey Operations for the Men's National Teams. During his time with Hockey Canada, Misha won a gold medal at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey in Toronto, serving as an Assistant Coach on Mike Babcock's staff. In addition, Donskov won gold medals with Canada at the 2016 IIHF World Championship in Russia, the 2015 IIHF World Championship in the Czech Republic, the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship in Toronto and Montreal and with the 2013 Under-18 Team at the Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament in the Czech Republic and Slovakia. He won a bronze medal with Canada's National Men's Under-18 Team at the 2014 IIHF U18 World Championship in Finland. Donskov also served on Canada's coaching staff for the Canada-Russia Challenge, CHL Subway Series and Deutschland Cup.

Prior to his work with Hockey Canada, he was an associate coach with the Ontario Hockey League's Ottawa 67's from 2012-14 and spent three seasons with the London Knights. With the Knights, he served as assistant general manager and assistant coach, winning an Ontario Hockey League championship in 2012. In 2011, Donskov won a gold medal with the U.S. Women's National Team in Zurich, Switzerland serving as player development coach and advanced scout. Donskov also spent eight years working with the NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets and Atlanta Thrashers organizations within hockey development, community development, fan development, marketing and hockey operations.

Before pursuing a career in hockey, Donskov spent six years with Cardinal Health, a Fortune 500 healthcare services company. He played hockey at the junior, university, and semi-professional level in Canada, United States, Sweden and Norway. Donskov holds a master's degree in kinesiology with a specialization in coaching education from the University of Western Ontario, as well as an undergraduate degree in business administration/finance from Miami (Ohio) University. He and his family own and operate Donskov Hockey Development in Columbus, Ohio. Donskov and his wife, Amy, reside in Las Vegas.

MIKE ROSATI
GOALTENDING COACH

Mike Rosati is in his fifth season with the Vegas Golden Knights, and is in his third season serving as the Goaltending Coach for the team. He previously served as the Goaltending Development Coach/scout for the Golden Knights. Rosati joins the team after serving as the goaltending coach of the Barrie Colts in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL).

He was drafted by the New York Rangers in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, won two Italian Hockey Championships with Bolzano HC, won three Deutsche Eishockey League (DEL) championships with the Mannheim Eagles and played on the Italian national team during the 1994 and 1998 Winter Olympics.

Rosati was the number-one goalie for most of Italy's greatest decade on the ice. He made his debut at the 1994 Olympics in Lillehammer and a few months later at the World Championship in Italy. In eight World Championships during this time, Rosati played in 32 of the team's 50 games and claimed 12 of the team's 16 victories during these years. He had two shutouts and posted a respectable 3.42 goals-against average playing every night against the best of the best. Rosati was named to the All-Time Italy Team in 2020 by the International Ice Hockey Federation.

He appeared in one NHL game and recorded 12 saves in a perfect outing for the Washington Capitals in 1998.

DAVE ROGOWSKI
VIDEO COACH

Dave Rogowski is in his second season as the video coach for the Vegas Golden Knights. He most recently served as the statistical analyst for the Chicago Wolves, who were at the time the American Hockey League affiliate for the Golden Knights. He managed all of the team's video needs and was part of the staff that helped lead the Wolves to a Calder Cup appearance and a Western Conference championship during the 2019 postseason.

Prior to his time in Chicago, Rogowski served as the Director of Hockey Operations for the United States Hockey League's Chicago Steel during the 2017-18 season. He managed all video needs for the team as well as coordinating all team travel logistics, player appearances and organized the hockey operation's budget and expenses.

From 2014-17, he served as a volunteer student assistant at the University of Denver and was part of the staff that captured the 2017 National Championship.

VAUGHN KARPAN
DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Vaughn Karpan is in his sixth season as Director, Player Personnel for the Golden Knights. In his role, Karpan oversees the scouting of players at the professional level as the Golden Knights continue to bolster the team's roster and prospect pool. This includes advising the hockey operations department on potential trades, transactions and signings.

Karpan is beginning his 28th season in the NHL and joined the Golden Knights after eleven years with the Montreal Canadiens hockey operations department. During his time with Montreal, he served as an amateur scout and pro scout before being named director of professional scouting in 2015. Prior to joining the Canadiens, he worked as a scout and director of amateur scouting for the Winnipeg Jets/Arizona Coyotes organization for thirteen seasons.

Before becoming a scout, he played for Canada's national hockey team from 1983-88, participating in the 1984 Sarajevo and 1988 Calgary Olympics. He also played one season with the WHL's Brandon Wheat Kings in 1979-80. Karpan went on to graduate from the University of Manitoba, where he captained the school's hockey team.

Karpan and his wife Marjorie make their home in Langley, BC. He has two adult sons; Nick and William.

BOB LOWES
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Bob Lowes is in his sixth season as the Assistant Director, Player Personnel for the Golden Knights. In this role, he assists Director of Player Personnel Vaughn Karpan in scouting players at the professional and amateur levels to bolster the team's roster and prospect pool. In addition, he advises the rest of the hockey operations department on potential trades, transactions and signings.

Before joining the Golden Knights, Lowes served as chief amateur scout for the Ottawa Senators for the previous two seasons. Lowes had been with the Senators since the 2006 season, where he started as an amateur scout.

Lowes spent 12 years as a head coach in the Western Hockey League (WHL), including nine years with the Brandon Wheat Kings and three years with the Regina Pats. Lowes was the head coach for the Wheat Kings when they won the WHL championship during the 1995-96 season. He was twice named coach of the year by both the WHL and the Canadian Hockey League (1995-96 and 2001-02).

A former player himself, Lowes was drafted in the 10th round of the 1982 draft by the New York Rangers. He played five seasons of junior hockey, three in the SJHL for the Prince Albert Raiders, then two in the WHL for the Regina Pats. He finished his playing career by playing two seasons at the University of Manitoba.

Lowes was born and raised in Prince Albert, SK. He resides in Regina with his wife, Shelley, daughters, Alycia and Mikayla, and son, Rob.

SCOTT LUCE
DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Scott Luce serves as Director, Amateur Scouting for the Golden Knights. In his role, Luce oversees the team's scouting operations with regards to potential prospects at the amateur level. He also leads the club's entry draft strategy and advises the rest of the hockey operations department regarding potential draft picks and transactions involving prospects.

Before joining the Golden Knights in August 2016, he spent 14 years with the Florida Panthers, serving as director of amateur scouting before being promoted to director of scouting in 2010. Prior to that, he was a scout for the Ottawa Senators and Tampa Bay Lightning.

Luce comes from a long line of hockey men in his family. His father, Don was director of player development for the Buffalo Sabres from 1987-2006. In addition, his uncle, Mike Boland, played for the Sabres and the Kansas City Scouts in the 1970s.

He played both NCAA and OHL hockey with Colgate University and the Guelph Platers, respectively. Luce also suited up for the Rochester Americans of the AHL.

Luce lives in London, Ontario with his wife, Ann Marie, who is the principal of the Canadian International School of Beijing. The pair have two sons: Griffin, who plays hockey at the University of Michigan, and Harrison, who is the captain of the Hobart College crew team.

VOJTECH KUCERA
DIRECTOR, EUROPEAN SCOUTING

Vojtech Kucera is in his sixth season as the Director of European Scouting. In this role, Kucera oversees the team's scouting operations with regards to potential prospects in Europe. He also advises the rest of the hockey operations department regarding potential draft picks and transactions involving European prospects. Before joining the Golden Knights in August of 2016, he spent 17 years with the Washington Capitals, serving as a European scout since 1999.

Kucera, a native of Prague, played for the Czechoslovakia U18 and U20 national teams in the 1980's. As a defenseman he helped the U20 team to win silver medals at the IIHF World Junior Championship in 1985. In 1986 he defected from communist Czechoslovakia and during the 1986-87 season he came over to Canada to play for the American Hockey League's Fredericton Express, an affiliate of the Quebec Nordiques. Following his stint in the AHL he played 4 seasons for the Saint Thomas University Thommies in the CIAU.

In the 1992-93 season he was named to the All-Canadian team. Kucera and his brother Frantisek, a former NHL defenseman, own an ice skating rink in Prague, the Czech Republic.

Kucera holds bachelor's degrees in arts and education from Saint Thomas University and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Toronto. He and his wife, Marketa, and their 2 daughters, Kristyna and Natalie, reside in the Czech Republic.

WIL NICHOL
DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Wil Nichol is in his sixth season as the Golden Knights' Director of Player Development. In this role, his responsibilities include overseeing the development of draft picks and prospects, organizing the summer development camp and the fall rookie camp, as well as scouting throughout the year.

Prior to joining the Golden Knights, Nichol served as a Player Development Scout for the Washington Capitals. In Washington, he was in charge of identifying and signing college and major junior free agents, assisting in the development of draft picks and prospects, and assisting in organizing summer development camps and fall rookie camps, as well as scouting.

Nichol obtained a Bachelor's degree in English along with a teaching certificate from the University of Wisconsin Stevens Point. He also has a Master's degree in Physical Education and Health Sports Studies from Miami (Ohio) University.

MIKE LEVINE
DIRECTOR, AMATEUR FREE AGENTS

Mike Levine is in his sixth season as the Director of Amateur Free Agents. In this role he works on procuring NCAA and CHL free agents.

Levine joined the Golden Knights from Brown University, where he had served as the assistant coach for the men's hockey team since July 2013. From 2011-13, he was the head coach at Kimball Union Academy in Meriden, New Hampshire.

Before serving as the head coach of Kimball Union, Levine spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Utica College. He also coached at New Hampton Prep, where he spent four seasons and led the team to a Division II championship in 2009.

Levine received both an undergraduate degree, as well as a master's degree in education from Utica College, where he also played hockey.

STARRY NIGHTS. GOLDEN DAYS.
This time last year, many of our adventure plans were on ice—and not in the fun sense. But now Nevada's wide-open road is calling. Which begs the question: when's the last time you hit the highway to explore what our wild state has up its sleeves? To ditch the pavement and gun it straight for the horizon? To clink cold ones under the brightest stars in the darkest skies? To get out there and make the kind of memories that only happen here? Sounds like it's time to stop being a duster and start kicking up some dust.

BOOMING SPORTS TOWN GROWS IN UNISON

BY GARRETT CALLOWAY

VEGAS SUPPORTS VEGAS

VEGAS SUPPORTS VEGAS

The Carr Family

The rapid rise of the sports landscape in Las Vegas has been well documented, and deservingly so, with the Golden Knights, Raiders and Aces among the professional teams that now call the desert home.

The NHL was first to arrive to town in the fall of 2017, as the WNBA and NFL followed closely behind. Major events including the NHL All-Star Game, the NFL Pro Bowl and the NFL Draft are all scheduled to take place in Las Vegas in 2022, and the WNBA All-Star game recently saw success there in July of 2021.

The 'Entertainment Capital of the World' is becoming the 'Sports and Entertainment Capital of the World,' serving as the home of the Ultimate Fighting Championship, and many believe that a franchise from the MLS, MLB or NBA could be next to follow suit.

The Golden Knights set a standard locally during their inaugural season when they advanced to the Stanley Cup Final before falling short against the Washington Capitals. After qualifying for the playoffs during their second season in Las Vegas, the Aces advanced to the WNBA Finals during the 2020 season.

Passionate support from a loyal community hungry for more has been an obvious catalyst of the early success in Las Vegas.

After starting the 2020-21 NHL season without fans in the stands, the Golden Knights opened T-Mobile Arena to 15% capacity on March 1, 2021. By June, the venue returned to full capacity in the middle of the 2021 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

"So much fun to play in front of fans again, especially our fans," said Golden Knights winger Max Pacioretty after one of the team's playoff games in June. "We talk about so often how they're able to help us take over a game. This is the best place to play and especially in the playoffs, it is a lot of fun."

Sellout crowds watched the Golden Knights advance among the NHL's final four teams for the third time in the team's first four seasons. Star athletes from the Raiders and Aces consistently showed support during playoff games including Derek Carr, A'ja Wilson, Maxx Crosby, Johnathan Abram, Kelsey Plum and Jackie Young. Local celebrities such as Criss Angel, Lil Jon, Usher and Wayne Newton also made appearances during the postseason at T-Mobile Arena.

"It's so much fun to be there, and Vegas has been waiting to be a sports town," said Wilson, the 2020 WNBA MVP, in a Q&A with Raiders.com. "To be a part of it as an athlete, but also as a spectator when I go to other games, is a lot of fun."

ers will host a full capacity of fans at Allegiant Stadium during the 2021 NFL season. The all-new 65,000-seat venue opened in the summer of 2020, though the franchise played its first home games without fans in attendance due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

During an offseason press conference held in June ahead of the 2021 NFL campaign, the quarterback of the Raiders was asked specifically about the relationship in town between the Raiders and Golden Knights.

"My boys are huge hockey fans now, so I'm learning the rules as we go," said Carr. "It's fun to watch other people play at a high level and to feel the city's energy. I've gotten to know some of those players and just want to continue to support those guys. Our city has been great in doing that."

Following the 2021 NHL postseason, members of the Golden Knights and Raiders continued the theme of teamwork as they participated in the Battle For Vegas Charity Softball Game, hosted by Golden Knights winger Reilly Smith at Las Vegas Ballpark. Team Smith's lineup included Mark Stone, Jonathan Marchessault, William Karlsson, Shea Theodore, Keegan Kolesar, Zach Whitecloud, Nic Hague, Greg Maddux and Jose Canseco. Marcus Allen, the former Raider running back and Super Bowl winner, captained the other side that included Josh Jacobs, Darren Waller, Henry Ruggs and Alec Ingold.

The two teams helped raise $175,000 for Miracle League Las Vegas and Grant a Gift Autism Foundation, both local non-profits, during the event that included a home run derby in front of a sold-out crowd.

"It's great to be able to do this in the community that has given us so much and has made us always feel at home," said Smith during the event. "Giving back to a great cause is always the most rewarding part of it."

Professional sports will continue to grow and thrive in the Entertainment Capital of the World, and it may not be long until it's better known as the Sports and Entertainment Capital of the World. Thanks to the blueprint provided by the Golden Knights, Raiders and Aces, the overarching support of each other will continue to be a staple of their success in Las Vegas.

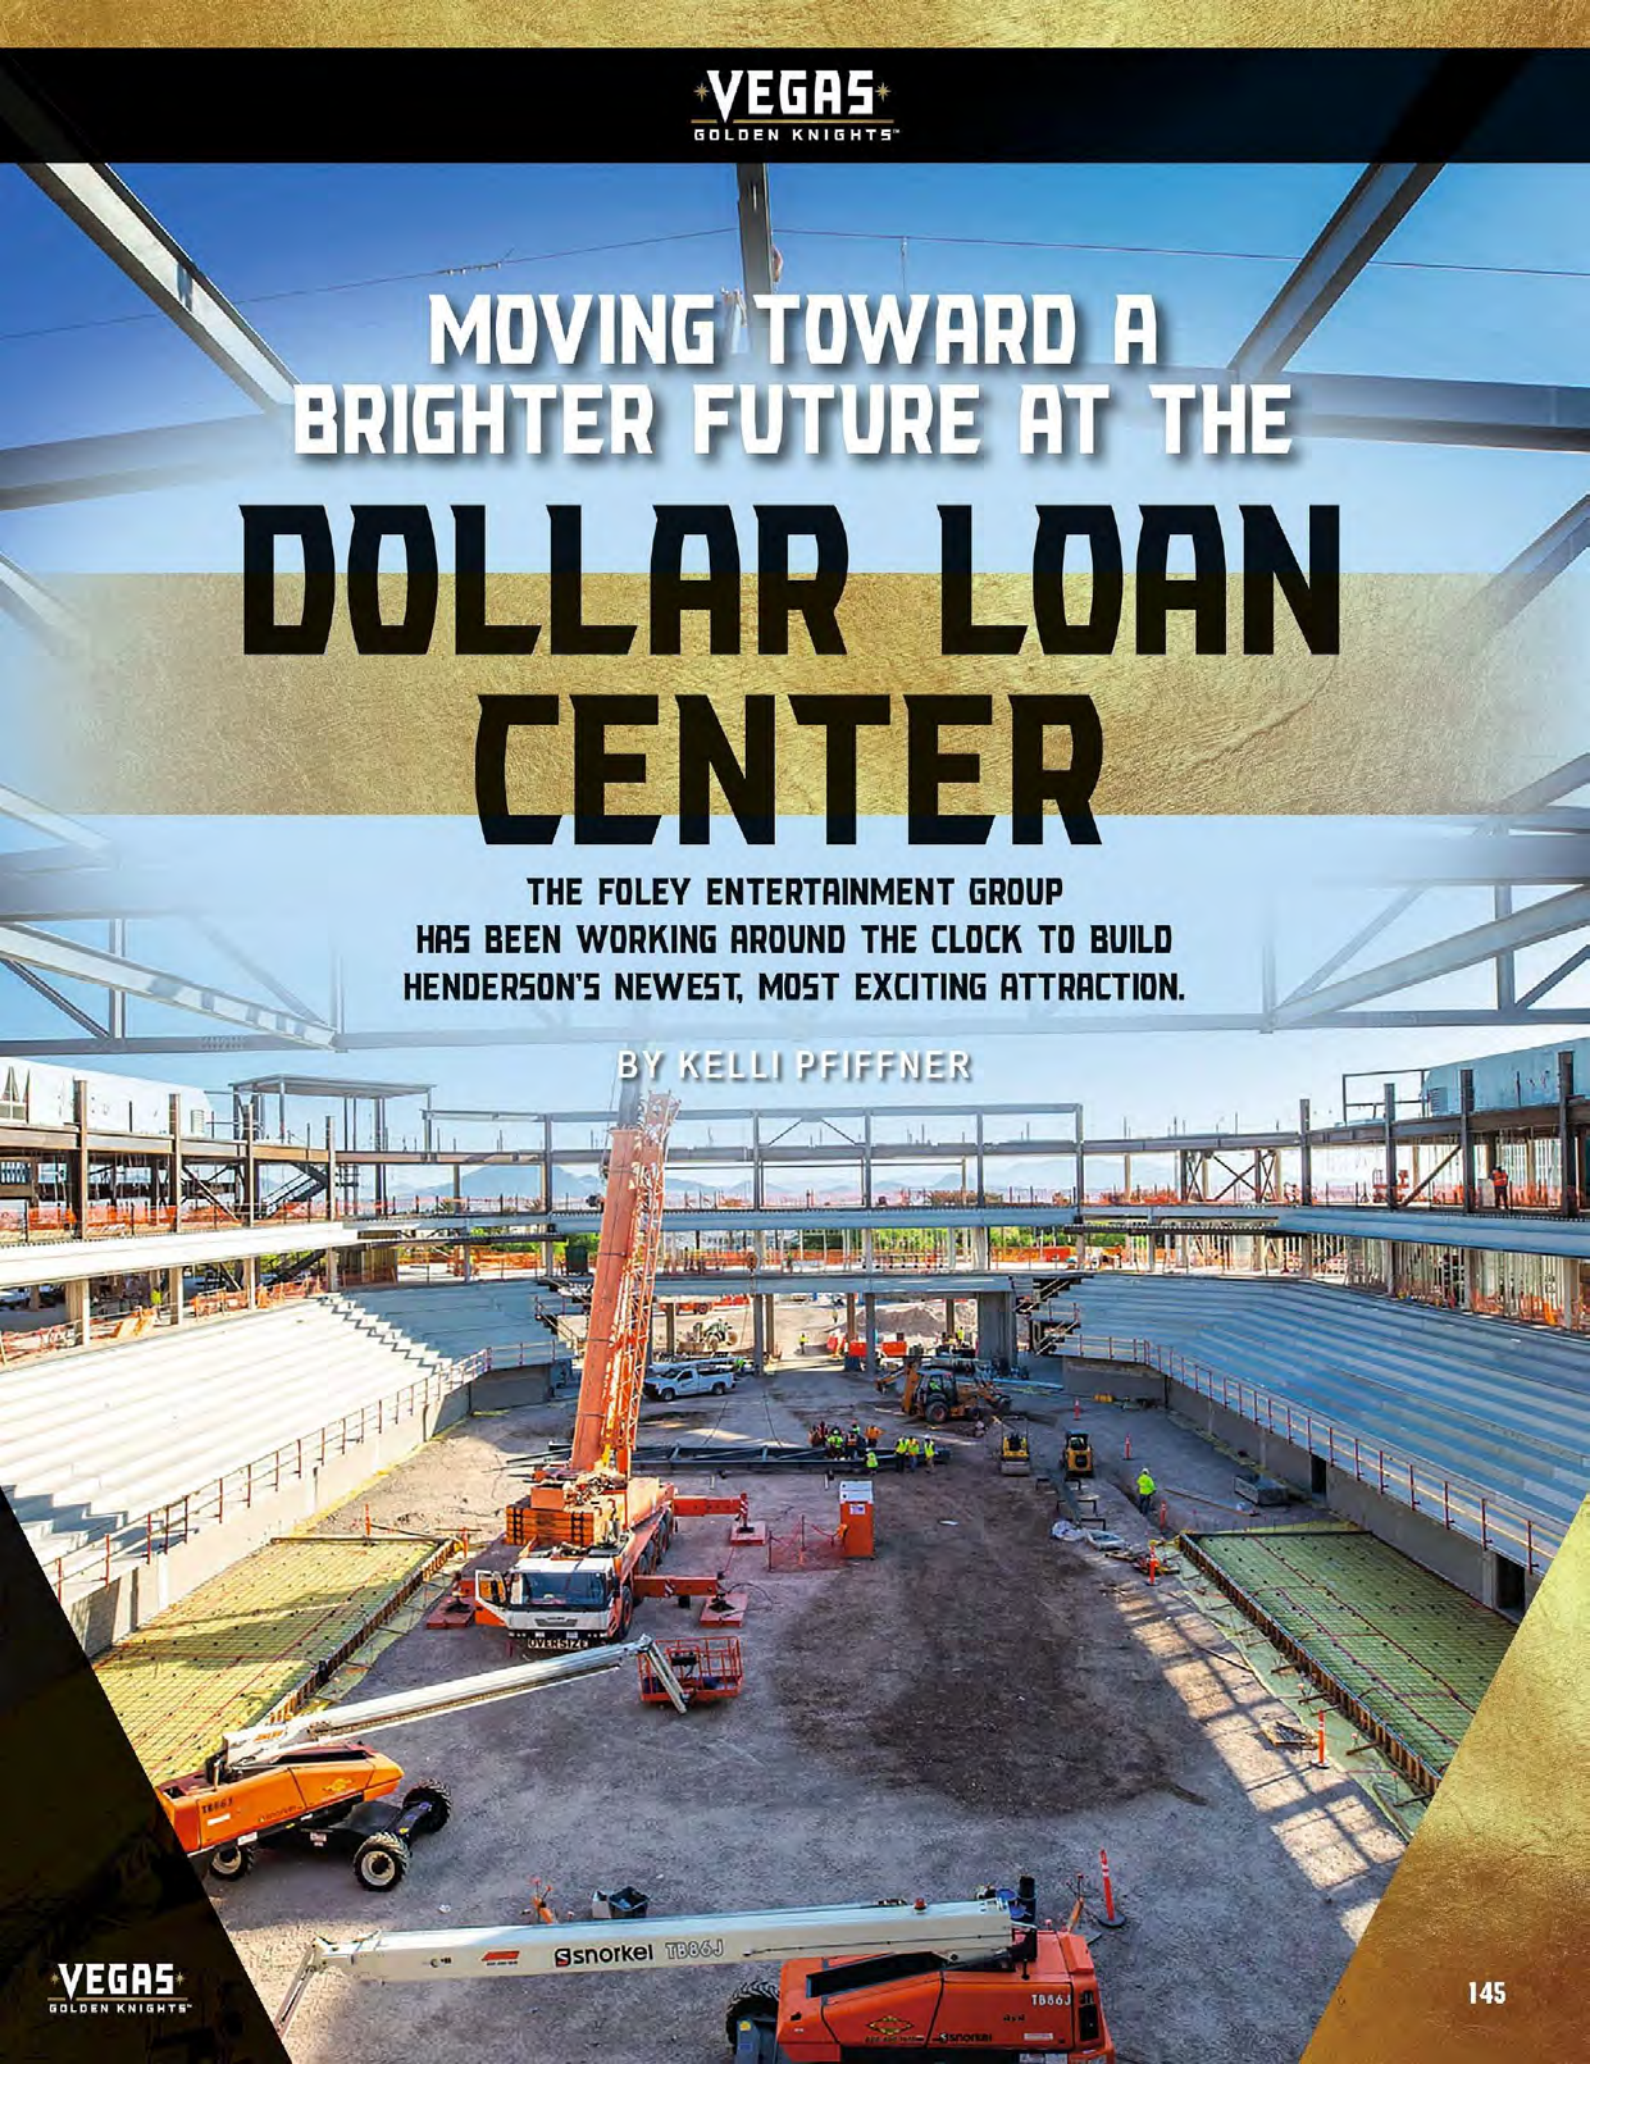
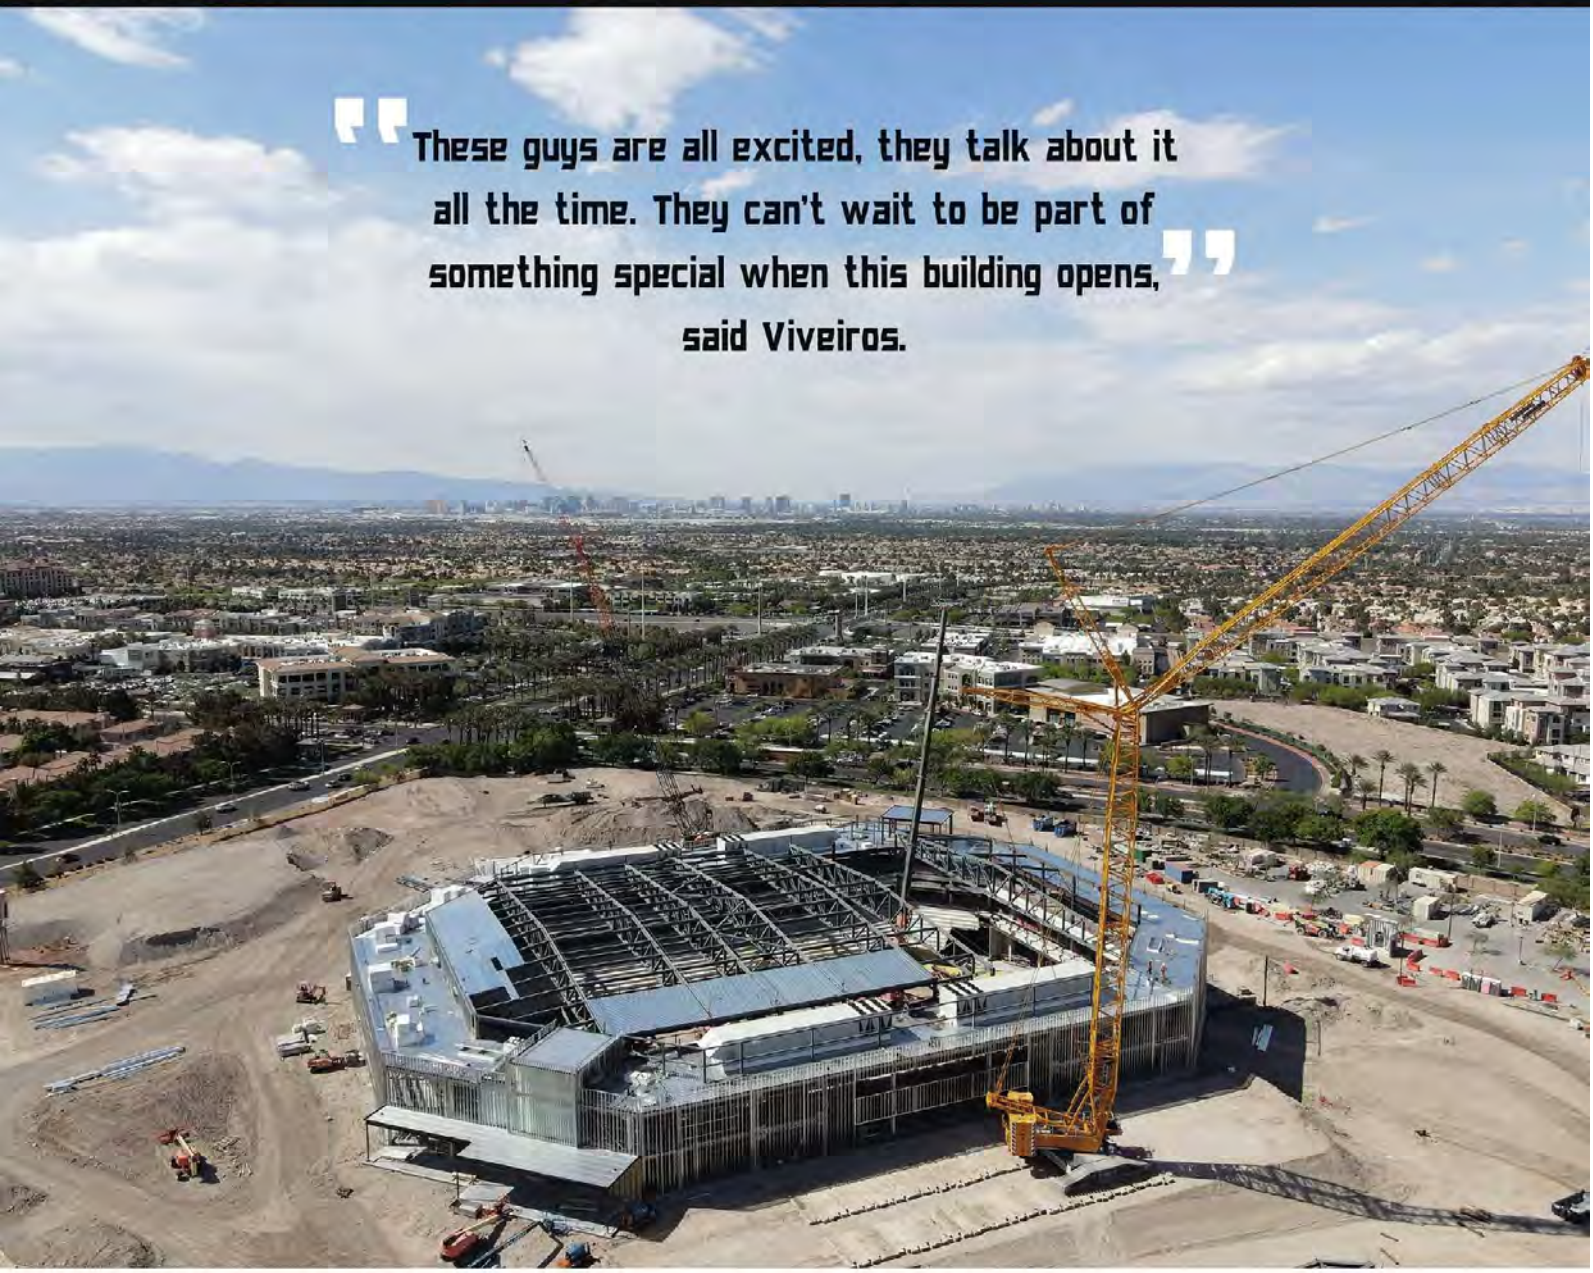
MOVING TOWARD A BRIGHTER FUTURE AT THE DOLLAR LOAN CENTER

THE FOLEY ENTERTAINMENT GROUP HAS BEEN WORKING AROUND THE CLOCK TO BUILD HENDERSON'S NEWEST, MOST EXCITING ATTRACTION.

BY KELLI PFIFFNER



DOLLAR LOAN CENTER



> "These guys are all excited, they talk about it all the time. They can't wait to be part of something special when this building opens," said Viveiros.

Nestled just outside of the entertainment capital of the world, a new state-of-the-art venue is on the verge of making its debut. Located in the heart of Henderson, Nevada is the brand-new Dollar Loan Center, a 6,000-seat community arena that will serve as the home of the American Hockey League's Henderson Silver Knights, the Indoor Football League's Vegas Knight Hawks and the Southern Nevada Sports Hall of Fame.

Construction began on the project in the summer of 2020 and it is expected to be completed in early 2022.

On Tuesday March 30, 2021 that space, which was formerly known as the Henderson Event Center, would now be known as the Dollar Loan Center during a media event that was held at the construction site. The naming rights announcement, and partnering with another Vegas Born company that is focused on helping the community, was a huge step forward for the arena.

"It's going to be a fantastic facility," said Foley Entertainment Group Chairman Bill Foley. "I knew it was going to be successful when we were doing our ticket drive and people were making deposits for an arena that hadn't been built yet."

"We love hockey [at Dollar Loan Center]. We have been involved with the Knights since day one," said Dollar Loan Center Founder and CEO Chuck Brennan. "It's just a perfect fit and Henderson needs an arena like this. It's in a great community area with 6,000 seats and to have Dollar Loan Center name on the side of this state-of-the-art arena is perfect."

At the same event it was also shared that The Southern Nevada Sports Hall of Fame (SNSHOF) would find its own home at the Dollar Loan Center, where the incredible accomplishments of Southern Nevada's local athletes will be on display for the community.

It was a natural fit to house the SNSHOF inside the new facility. Not only will fans be able to see the rich sports history of Southern Nevada's past, but they'll be able to watch history be made on the ice by the Silver Knights and on the field by the Knight Hawks.

"We are going to have beautiful space here to display all the accomplishments of past inductees," said Dale Eeles from the SNSHOF. "For all the students and athletes that will walk through this facility, to one day know they could be represented here as well is an exciting thing for the future."

For the Silver Knights specifically, DLC will offer brand new scenery for the team. Through their inaugural 2020-21 season, the Silver Knights played their home games at Orleans Arena, and the same will be true for the majority of the 2021-22 season. While the Orleans has a rich history of hockey in Southern Nevada – it was previously the home of the ECHL's Las Vegas Wranglers – the organization is excited to move into a space tailor-made for their needs.

Just like their parent club, the Henderson Silver Knights have prided themselves on creating a best-in-class experience for fans and players alike. The team's new home will be no exception. It will be equipped with suites, lounges, a full-service restaurant, an observation deck, team store and a large outdoor plaza.

"I was here on day one when they first started and broke ground here," said Henderson Silver Knights head coach Manny Viveiros at a site tour with players from the 2020-21 roster. "To see how far they've come in such a short period of time is just amazing. Walking underneath and seeing what our facility is going to look like underground, seeing the dressing room, the coach's room and just the area itself is absolutely incredible. Just getting the opportunity to look up top at the main level and see how intimate this building is going to be, as far as how loud the crowd is going to be – it is going to be a real home advantage for us for sure.

"These guys are all excited, they talk about it all the time. They can't wait to be part of something special when this building opens," said Viveiros.

On Saturday, April 2, 2022, the HSK will make the big move and take the ice for the first time at DLC.

In addition to being the home of two local franchises, the Dollar Loan Center will also offer a fantastic space for tournaments. It was shared on June 24, 2021, that the first publicly ticketed event ever to be held at DLC will be the 2022 Big West Basketball Championships, presented by the Hawaiian Islands. The five-day tournament will run March 8-12 featuring 10 women's and 10 men's teams vying for conference championships and automatic bids to the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Basketball Championships.

"It's not just AHL hockey, it's not just Indoor Football, it's not just college basketball - it's all of those plus great events and activities. That's really what this is built for," said Bubolz at an event announcing the Big West Basketball Championship at the DLC construction site. "People will be right on top of the action. There isn't going to be a bad seat in the house."

GOLDEN KNIGHTS KEEP EYES ON FIRST STANLEY CUP

NEW LOOK, SAME GOAL

BY WILL JENKOFSKY

NEW LOOK, SAME GOAL

The Vegas Golden Knights may have a new-look lineup come October, but bringing a Stanley Cup to Las Vegas remains the goal.

The Golden Knights have made their mark since entering the National Hockey League in 2017, making the playoffs every year since entering. Vegas has reached the conference finals three out of the four years. In addition, they made the Stanley Cup Final their first year in the league. They have yet to raise the ultimate crown in hockey, but they made key additions and brought back core members of the team in their quest to win it all.

To begin a busy offseason, Vegas completed a trade with the New York Rangers to acquire Brett Howden. He spent the last three seasons with the Rangers and is currently signed to a one-year contract. Some would say in didn't work out in New York for Howden, but the young Center has a lot of promise.

The former first-round draft pick impressed in juniors with the Moose Jaw Warriors of the Western Hockey League (WHL), producing at over a point-per-game pace. In 248 games played in the WHL, Howden registered 267 points (109 G, 158 A). During his junior hockey career, he also skated in the CHL Top Prospects game, a game where the best major junior players in Canada play. Howden hasn't had his offensive game translate to the NHL yet, but he plays at a high pace and plays on the penalty kill.

After they traded for Howden, Vegas completed a three-way trade in which they received Nolan Patrick from the Nashville Predators by way of the Philadelphia Flyers. Patrick was drafted second overall by the Philadelphia Flyers in 2017. He's another product of the WHL and scored at an elite pace in his time with the Brandon Wheat Kings. In 163 games played, he notched 205 points (92 G, 113 A). He then came straight to the NHL after being drafted. As a rookie, he added 30 points (13 G, 17 A) in 73 games. He had similar numbers the following season, but his third year didn't go as planned. With complications from concussions, he missed the entire 2019-20 season. He then skated in 52 games in 2020-21, producing nine points.

Patrick has a lot of skill, especially on the offensive side of the puck. His lethal shot and great playmaking ability give him the potential to be an offensive menace. He can be a number one center going forward if he finds that level he played at in juniors – and General Manager, Kelly McCrimmon believes he can.

"I know the player extremely well", said McCrimmon. "I know what he's capable of. He's accomplished a fair bit in the NHL as a young player. He had a 30-point season and a 31-point season in his first two years in the NHL".

Vegas also added more up front when trading for Ottawa Senators winger, Evgenii Dadonov. The Russian forward spent last season with Ottawa after spending the prior three season with the Florida Panthers. Throughout his NHL career, the veteran has played in 335 games and has recorded 222 points (104 G, 118 A). Dadonov has surpassed the 60-point mark twice throughout his professional career.

Prior to his NHL career, Dadonov earned himself stellar accolades in Russia playing in the KHL. He's a two-time Gagarin Cup winner and has netted 15 playoff goals, three of which were game-winning goals.

The 32-year-old winger brings a lot of experience and proven scoring ability to the lineup. This addition, along with the others, has the organization excited about this new-look forward group.

"I think these are the best top-nine forwards we have had, and I think this is the best group of forwards collectively our team has had.", McCrimmon said.

Laurent Brossoit

The team didn't only focus on bolstering the forward group, but they added depth in between the pipes. Via free agency, Vegas signed former Winnipeg Jets backup goaltender, Laurent Brossoit. The 28-year-old goaltender has played in 82 games, starting 65 of them and is 32-32-0 with a 2.83 goals-against average and a .908 save percentage.

Vegas is confident in their organizational depth in between the pipes. Brossoit is a proven veteran and they have another goalie who emerged in the AHL last season, Logan Thompson. He was named goaltender of the month in the months of February and March. Thompson was also awarded with the Aledege "Baz" Bastien, which is awarded to the AHL's outstanding goaltender.

Roster change is inevitable almost every offseason for teams around the league – and with the COVID-19 pandemic playing a role, roster decisions became more complicated. What wasn't complicated for Vegas, was retaining Alec Martinez.

The Golden Knights re-signed Alec Martinez to a three-year contract extension. Martinez has become a crucial piece to this team since being traded in February of 2019. Since joining Vegas, he has found an offensive touch to his game on top of shutting down opponents' top players every night. In 63 games with the Golden Knights, Martinez has produced 40 points (11 G, 29 A). The blueliner also led the entire NHL in blocked shots during the 2020-21 season with 168 blocked shots and in the post-season with 72 shots blocked.

Aside from his stellar play, Martinez brings a quiet leadership to the group. The two-time Stanley Cup winner played most of the 2020-21 playoffs on a broken foot. Bringing back Martinez was on top of the priority list this off-season.

The Golden Knights also brought back Mattias Janmark, who was a mid-season acquisition. Janmark is a versatile player who can play up and down the lineup. He was brought in this year to add depth during the playoff push, along with some grit. The Fin made his mark when he recorded a hat trick in game 7 against the Minnesota Wild to help the Vegas move on to the second round of the playoffs.

The Golden Knights added firepower up front and brought back key pieces to the roster. In a time of uncertainty, one this is certain: Vegas is all in on bringing the City of Las Vegas a Stanley Cup.

#SameHere

THE GLOBAL MENTAL HEALTH MOVEMENT

Our Story

The #SameHere Global Mental Health Movement was founded in late 2017 by Eric Kussin, a professional sports executive who experienced a debilitating mental health crisis, at the height of his career - seemingly "out of nowhere" - for two and a half years. As he recovered, Eric decided not to return to pro sports, and instead to dedicate his life to mental health advocacy.

Our Mission

#SameHere is committed to normalizing society's perception of mental health by making it part of our everyday conversation. In order to do so, we must first redefine mental health as something that affects everyone ("5 out of 5," instead of only the "1 out of 5" with disorder we so often hear about). #SameHere believes mental health lives and moves on a continuum ranging from "thriving" to "sinking," as a result of life's inevitable challenges and stressors that everyone in this world faces. Our "stories" unite us.

"We have something special going here, and it unites people in a magical way."

- NHL Great, Theo Fleury

Our Team

The Movement is comprised of celebrities, advocates, integrative practitioners, business leaders and the world's leading experts in STARR (Stress & Trauma, Active Release & Rewiring) Exercises. Individually and collectively, our team of #SameHere Alliances is shifting the mental health paradigm via vulnerable story-sharing, and by implementing culture-changing, evidence-based programs within schools, offices, military/first responder groups and sports teams/leagues.

Our Impact

#SameHere is ultimately a movement of inclusion and education - mental health affects us all and just like physical health, there is no "one size fits all" treatment. #SameHere has brought its "Gym for the Brain," STARR exercise model and the 'mental health for all' message to:

- K-12 schools around the world
- College campuses from USC to Cornell
- Corporations from JP Morgan Chase to CNBC
- Professional sports entities from New York Yankees to National Football League Players Association (NFLPA)
- Military groups from NYPD to Department of Defense

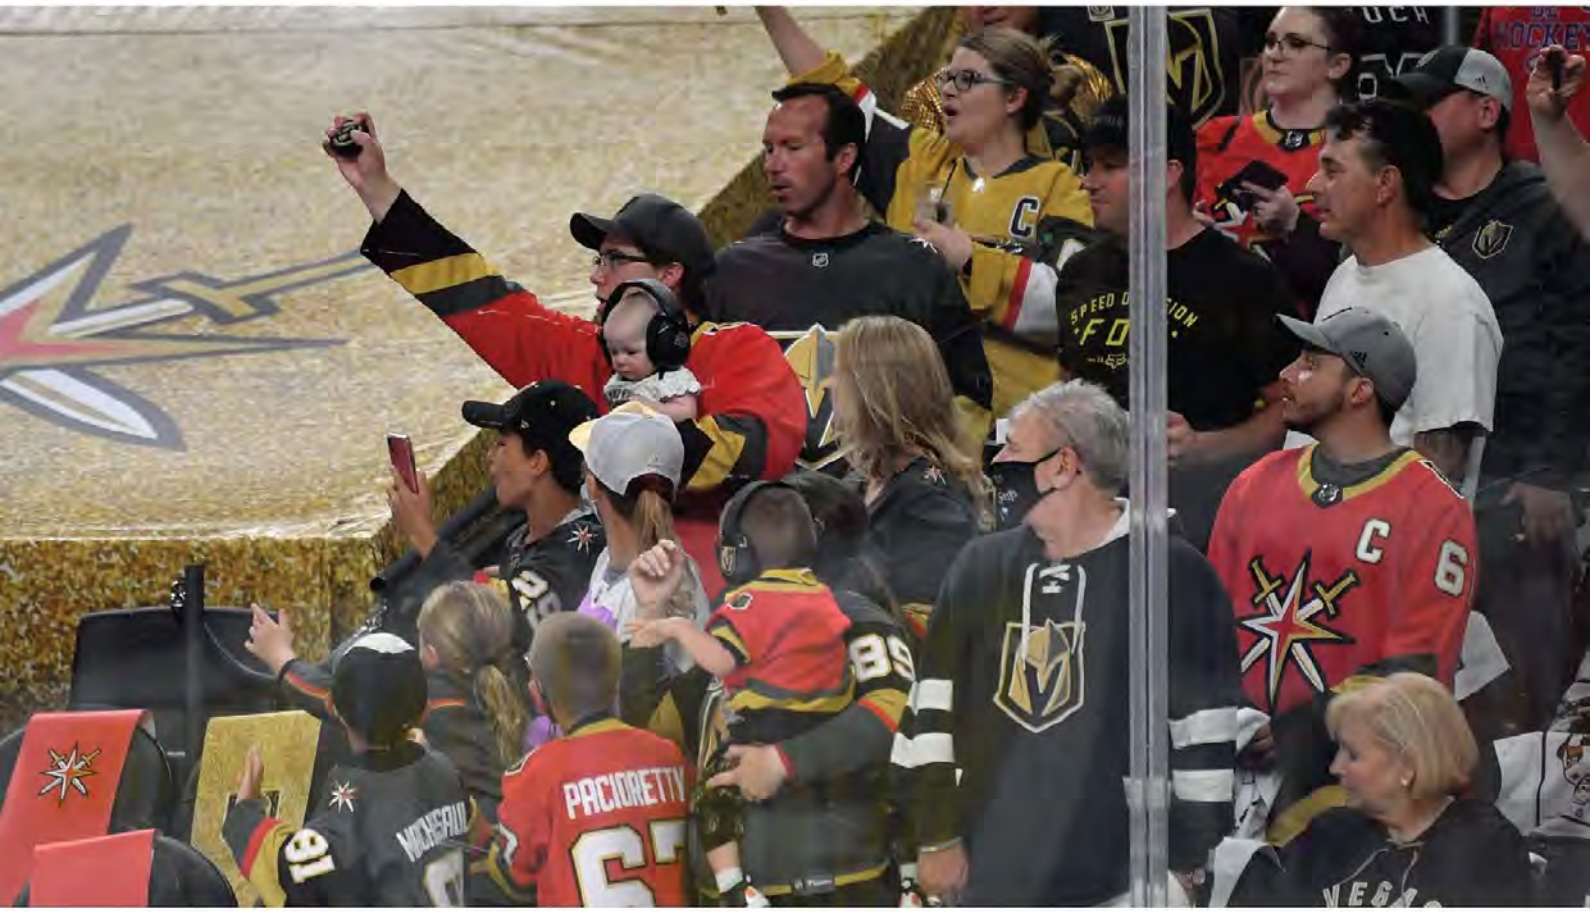
HOCKEY'S CORE

FAMILY, COMMUNITY, AND TOGETHERNESS CREATE ONE OF THE STRONGEST FANBASES IN THE NHL

LAS VEGAS COMMUNITY CONTINUES TO FUEL SUCCESS ON THE ICE

BY DAKOTA MILLER

HOCKEY'S CORE



Nothing is more important than winning in sports.

Since its inaugural season in 2017, the Vegas Golden Knights organization has done a lot of winning, as the team has the fourth most victories since joining the NHL in 2017. Every day, the front office does everything in its ability to maintain a winning team.

The Stanley Cup will always be the end goal for team players and staff, although the organization also recognizes a different yet equally important strength.

Family is a key component of hockey. From parents waking up early in the morning to take their children to the rink, to brothers and sisters challenging each other to get better, family is foundational to the growth and success of any sport.

The same can be said about community. A team would be a shadow of itself without a strong, loyal, and passionate fanbase to support the players on the ice during the winning seasons and in the middle of losing streaks. From the bottom of the Vegas organization to the top, there is a deep understanding of this relationship.

When the Golden Knights announced plans in the spring of 2020 for their new American Hockey League affiliate, the Henderson Silver Knights, the goal was to connect even more to the surrounding areas and communities of Las Vegas. Henderson was strategically chosen to grow the new organization to outreach and grow a vibrant fanbase outside of Las Vegas city limits, while creating and nurturing an entirely new following.

Since the inception of the Silver Knights, the community has rallied together more than ever. The support from Henderson and Las Vegas residents has been unrivaled, despite the inaugural season in the AHL coming with challenges from COVID-19.

Outdoor watch parties across the valley were held over the past season to overcome those challenges, allowing fans to still bond and come together. Some watch parties included thousands of fans and families wearing team colors hoping that the players could feel their support from hundreds of miles away.

The communities of Las Vegas and Henderson have only been able to create this culture of family and togetherness with the help of the Golden Knights and Silver Knights actively working to be integrated together through social media platforms, mascots, and watch parties.

Through various initiatives, the two teams have thrown family into the spotlight on social media. The Golden

Chance the Gila Monster

Knights refer to the Silver Knights as its "lil sib", while the Silver Knights refer to the Golden Knights as its "big sib."

Another aspect of the family integration is through the team mascots. Each mascot has a role in creating family-friendly organization. One of the shared roles between Chance the Gila Monster and Lucky the Horse is Sibling Sunday, where they come together and play fun games such as bubble hockey or to see who is the fastest in a race.

The community was able to bond through Golden Knights playoff watch parties as well. Water Street Plaza, adjacent to the official practice facility in Downtown Henderson for the Silver Knights, hosted multiple gatherings to cheer on the postseason push. Equipped with food trucks, lawn games, music, and other entertainment, the outdoor venue was able to host over 2,000 fans ranging from all ages.

A family favorite activity in Las Vegas is watching a VGK game at T-Mobile Arena. Kids Day is one of the reasons why. Kids Days have fallen on weekend afternoon and evening games where the entire show is themed around kids. Graphics are designed to look like Legos. Kids would get free t-shirts, and the entire night was based on bring the family to enjoy each other's company while watching the best show on the Strip.

Known as the Entertainment Capital of the World, hockey games in Las Vegas at T-Mobile Arena are much more than just games. The elaborate show that is unmatched across the NHL is centered around excitement and youth. Most Vegas shows on Las Vegas Boulevard are for those 21 and older, but now the best show was created for all ages.

Hockey's strength comes from community and family. The Golden Knights and Silver Knights prioritize that strength through strategic branding of social media platforms, watch parties, and mascots.

Las Vegas is built on entertainment. The Golden Knights create the best show in town for adults and kids alike. Nothing beats hockey in the desert when family, community, and togetherness join forces.

STONE

RELIES ON CONSISTENCY AS VEGAS CAPTAIN

BY GORDON WEIGERS

The captaincy of an NHL franchise goes beyond a letter on a jersey. The singular letter worn on one player's chest signifies more than just the word "captain."

Being named the captain of an NHL franchise doesn't mean that player is the best player on the team. It doesn't mean they're the oldest player on the team or that the individual has been with an organization for the longest period.

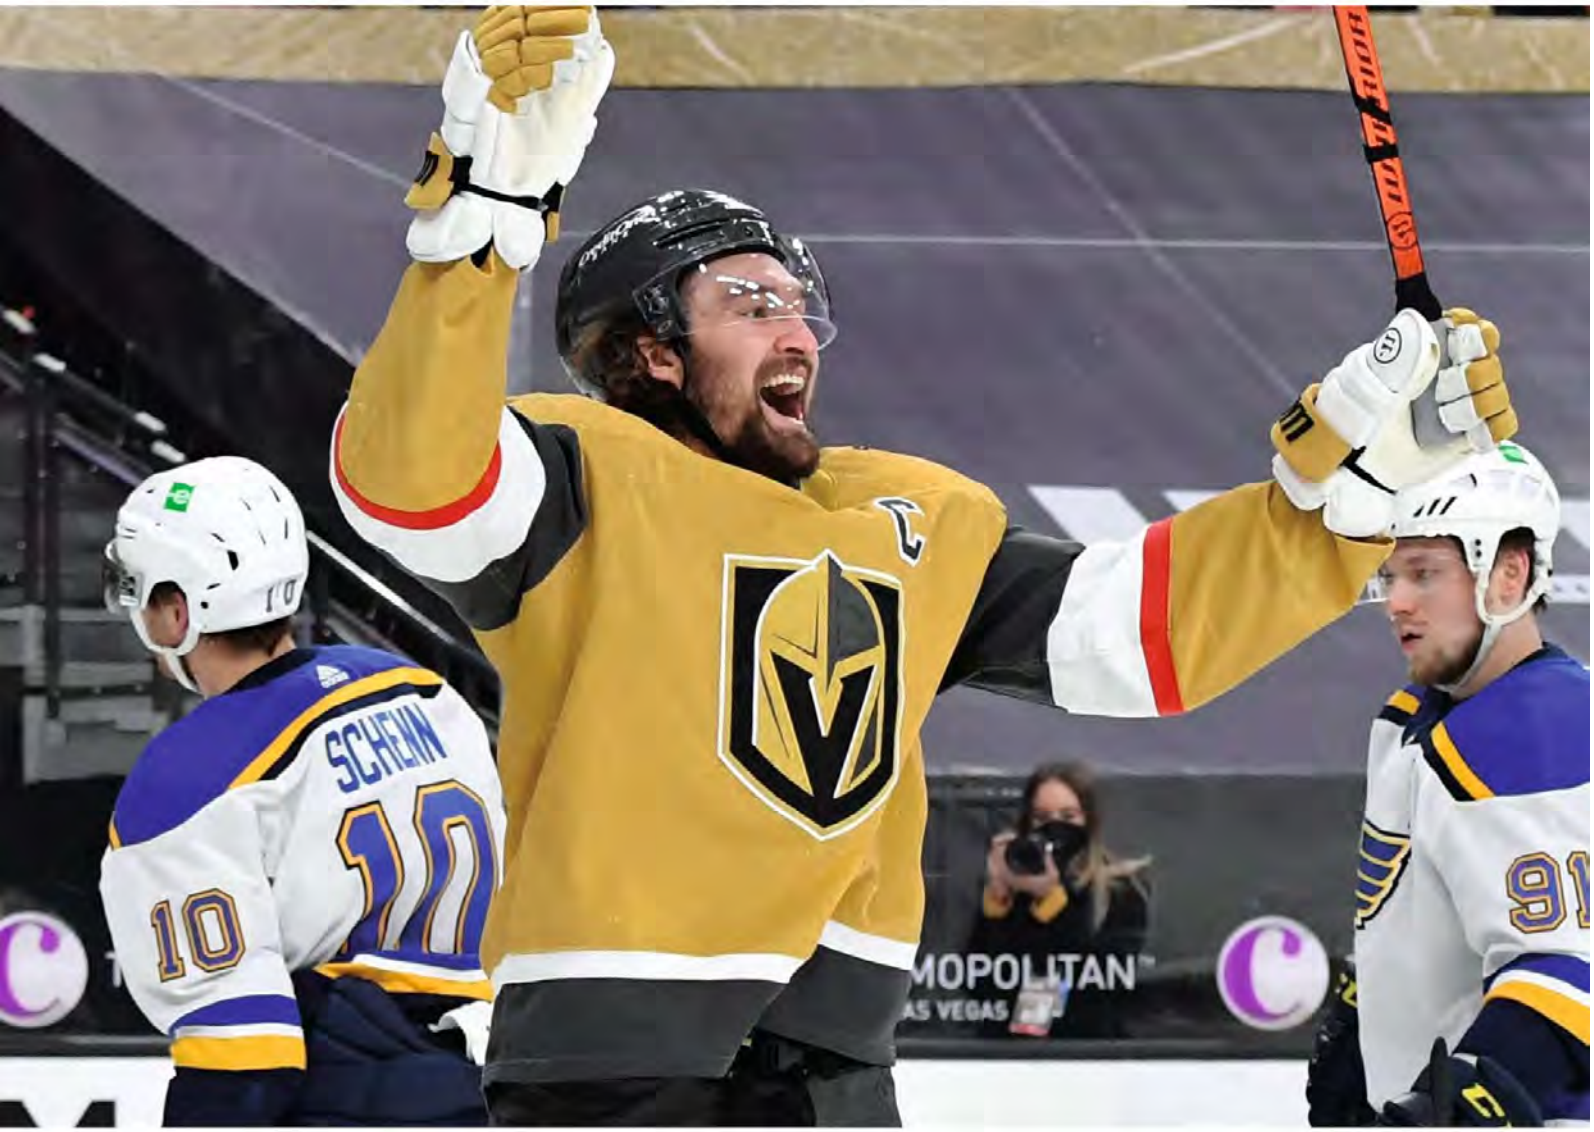
Wearing the "C" on your jersey shows that management has seen in a single player everything that it wants to see from the organization as a whole.

In the case of Mark Stone and the Vegas Golden Knights, his designation as the leader of the team was a signal to the hockey world about who Stone is as a person and what the organization stands for.

When Stone was named captain on Jan. 13, 2021, General Manager Kelly McCrimmon said he and his staff knew they had the obvious candidate in Stone to lead the team and that the time was right for the organization to have its first captain. Stone's commitment to doing things the right way on the ice and treating people the right way off the ice was a key indicator for McCrimmon that the Golden Knights had found their leader for years to come.

"The best captains continue to be themselves," McCrimmon said the day Stone was named captain. "That's why Mark was selected as our captain, and I expect he will grow into this role very nicely. In fact, I think it will help him become a better player."

McCrimmon's assessment of Stone that day matches the perspective taken by Vegas defenseman Alex Pietrangelo. Before joining the Golden Knights, Pietrangelo was the captain of the St. Louis Blues and helped deliver the first Stanley Cup in franchise history in 2019. During his time as the Blues captain, Pietrangelo said that consistency as a person helped him as a leader and as an individual.

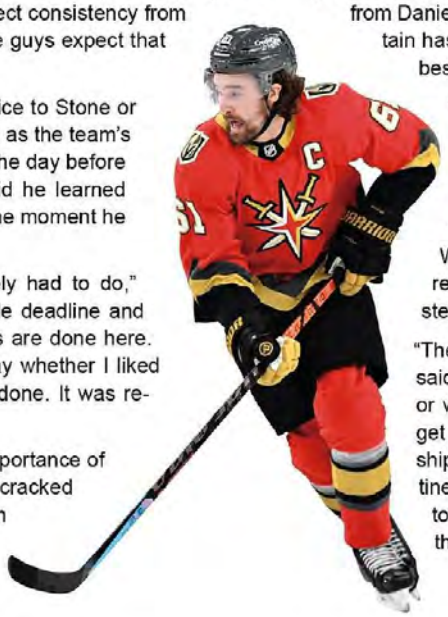


"One thing I always told myself was to stay true to myself as a person," Pietrangelo said. "If you're changing who you are as a person, people will notice. It made me a better player. You expect consistency from yourself when you're a captain because the guys expect that from you."

Whether Pietrangelo directly gave that advice to Stone or not, Stone followed it during his first season as the team's captain. The "C" was sewn onto his jersey the day before the 2020-21 season began, but Stone said he learned what it takes to lead the Golden Knights the moment he arrived in 2019.

"I didn't have a ton that I immediately had to do," Stone said. "I came over at the trade deadline and realized pretty quick the way things are done here. We were going to keep it that way whether I liked it or not. That's the way it was done. It was refreshing."

Stone said he learned the importance of consistency when he first cracked the professional ranks with the Ottawa Senators organization. He learned from Andre Benoit in the AHL that the captain's job is to bring the whole locker room together. At the NHL level, he learned from Daniel Alfredsson, Jason Spezza and Erik Karlsson that the captain has to expect the best from himself before he can expect the best from his teammates.



"You can't just be a good player," Stone said. "You have to do things that benefit the whole team, the individual players and the coaching staff."

The Golden Knights relied on all 23 players on the team for leadership during their first three seasons in the NHL. While Stone understands he has an added amount of responsibility as the captain, he said he knows he's not steering the ship on his own.

"There are so many personalities on a team," Stone said. "Some guys might gel better with Reilly Smith or with Pietrangelo. There are times where I can get too emotional, and Smith is there to calm the ship. Pietrangelo has won a Stanley Cup. Martinez has won two Stanley Cups. You've got to rely on them. You've also got to rely on the guys who have been here since day one like Brayden McNabb and Jonathan Marchessault. They were the main reason this organization had success initially and they've been able to maintain it. It's hard to maintain a successful organization as long as we have. Teams would do anything to have the four years we've had."

Stone's trust in himself and his ability to stay even-keel are aspects that Pietrangelo said will help him as he prepares for his second season as the captain of the Golden Knights. As Stone's leadership continues to blossom, Pietrangelo is most excited to watch him do grow in a way that is uniquely his own.

"Everyone does it in their own way," Pietrangelo said. "No two people are the same and that applies to captains. Stone is different than Niklas Lidstrom. He's different than me when I was a captain and he's different than Max Pacioretty when he was the captain in Montreal. It's fun to see his growth because everyone is their own person and their own player."

"You expect consistency from yourself when you're a captain because the guys expect that from you."
